From Barbara . . .

Could someone you just met identify you as a believer in God by your behavior? St. Paul tells us that the first Christian communities were formed by people imitating the Christians that they met. We should be proud of our faith and live it out so that others want to be like us. A song from my teen years reminds me of today's gospel and St. Paul's challenge – They will know we are Christians by our love. Take time this week to be aware of how you are exhibiting your Catholic/Christian faith by your everyday behavior.

Thanks to all who made the Colorfest Food stand and the St. Anthony Yard Sale such a success. These events help us to pay our operating expenses that are not covered by the weekly collections. Your generosity in donating time and items helps us to keep expenses down so the funds raised are even greater. Next up is Cash Bash November 12. Tickets are still available and volunteers and items are needed. Thanks in advance.

As you know we lost a dear friend of our parishes on October 6, Fr. David Shaum. Fr. Shaum ministered to our parishes in many ways. He presided at at least 14 of our 40 Masses a month and often more than that. He heard confessions, ministered to the sick and dying and prayed for us everyday. He was a priest of the Archdiocese of Baltimore for over 65 years. Each one of us had a different experience of Fr. Shaum. Mine was of a man who loved God and the Church and gave his life to both. I know that he will continue to watch over us and intercede for us in heaven. May the choirs of angels greet him in paradise and lead him to the holy city, the new and eternal Jerusalem. (He's probably already directing the choirs of angels!)

May God continue to bless us all.

Practice Faithful Citizenship:

Join the Catholic Advocacy Network

"Responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation," the U.S. Bishops have said. Getting involved is easy. The Maryland Catholic Advocacy Network, an outreach of the Maryland Catholic Conference, is an email network that keeps you informed on public policy issues and puts you in direct contact with lawmakers to share your views. Visit www.mdccathcon.org and click on the Catholic Advocacy Network button to join today.

Parish Email List

As we all get busier and time in our daily lives becomes a limiting factor, it is harder for us to keep in contact with each other and with our church. The Parish Council is compiling a listing of current E-mail addresses to help resolve this problem. Parish Council members will be outside the Masses on Saturday and Sunday, 22 – 23 and 29 – 30 October 2011 to collect your active E-mail addresses. These will be used only for contact between our church and yourself; these addresses will not be shared with any third party. While forms for you to fill out will be available, you can also jot your family's name(s) and E-mail address(es) on a note card or other slip of paper and simply hand it to a Parish Council member. Thank you for your help.

Marriage, Divorce and Annulments from a Catholic Perspective

The Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Baltimore will be giving a presentation in our area concerning divorce and annulment from the Catholic perspective. This presentation will be helpful for divorced Catholics, those divorced who wish to marry Catholics, those parish leaders involved in the RCIA process and any others who may have a vested interest because of family or friends. This session will be held on Wednesday, October 26, at 7:00 pm at Holy Family Catholic Community, Middletown in the Legacy Room. No prior registration is required. For further information, please call (410) 547-5533.

Come and See Weekend

October 21-23, the Sisters of Bon Secours invite single Catholic women (ages 19-45) to experience the life of the Sisters of Bon Secours and to learn more about religious life as a nun. Located at the Bon Secours Provincial House near Baltimore, you will enjoy time for discussions, prayer and reflection, Mass, relaxation, and conferences with other women exploring religious life. Please call (410) 442-3172 or email CBSeVocations@bshsi.org to register or for more information.

Come and See

Considering a call to religious life? The Daughters of Charity will host a "Come and See" discernment retreat for single Catholic women ages 18-40 on November 4-6, 2011 in Emmitsburg, MD. Please contact the Vocation Office at (443) 602-5801 or Sr. Denise LaRock at lacrocksrd@doc.org for more details.
